Dear Annabelle,

I received the material you sent - looks as though you've been very busy and thorough as usual. I have reworded the letter as you suggested and I hope the information and wording meets your approval. After I finished the letter I thought possibly I should have written it to read as though it came from both of us and signed by us both. On the other hand I thought possibly you would care to write a short note to those you mail your letters to and sign that. I can also give credit due at the re-union. I have marked ✓ the ones you agreed to mail letters to and the last three names, since they lived in Marlinton or near by I also thought you would want to contact them. My Sec't. typed some of this for me and I noticed she misspelled a few words — she had worked so hard I didn't feel like having her do it over so I said nothing. Before you mail the letter you can correct any spelling you care to. I noticed Bladen was spelled without the L in the letter.

Annabelle to put too much in a letter would make it bulky and possibly more expensive to mail. I thought we could get by with mailing the letter, plus the reservation form and the list of those that attended our last reunion. We mutual favors during our conversation and agreed they were unnecessary. I did find an old copy of our eight grade "memory book" with the names of the graduates Popularity Contest, Letter to Mrs Gra 8th Grader, Class Poem, Class Prophecy, Last Will and Testimony. I have made a copy for each member and even put a back on it just as the original. I also put in the front of this booklet a copy of addresses (Present) of the members of our class. I thought this would be a more meaningful favor than something else we might give. I might add this will cost the group nothing, and in case they have lost theirs they might like to have a copy.

Let me know - if you have anything more for me to do.

Dugey

PS, I also made a booklet for the registration of those present at the re-union [illegible] instructions so.

Don't be fussy with your teacher
For they are sincere and true
Nobleness and truth and kindness
Are their every though of you.

Do your best in all your lesson
Study hard at home and school
Never let it be said, Children,
Marlinton Graded sends out fools.

On the morrow we'll be leaving
Oh, but gee we hate to go
Leaving all this joy behind us
And the teachers we loved so.

There's Miss Carter kind and human
And Mrs. Wilson firm by us
Mr. Johnson ever working
Trying to get the best from us.

Mr. Shrader with his science
Trying to teach Earth and Mars
With a patience we admit now
And confess we do admire.

There's another named Mrs. Mason
We must never, never forget
For a better kinder teacher
We have never met.

Now goodby-goodby forever
We will leave this work for [illegible]

CLASS POEM

What time in life do we hold the most dear?
What years are the fairest of all?
The years we are young - the years we are old.
The years when we are great or small.
Just think over the years, and remember it well,
The things we have learned and agree -
The best days of life are the days with out strife
So Grade School days it will be.

--Rella Blanchard
